

HTAI Dublin Branch / Brainse Átha Cliath

Spring Seminar

An Opportunity to Revise for Exams and to Plan Ahead

Palatine Room, National Museum, Collins Barracks

Saturday 12th March 2011

9.30 Registration and a Chance to examine National Museum Materials

10.00 Introduction

Lorraine Comer, head of Education, National Museum

10.05 Preparing 6th Years for the Higher Level History Exam: One teacher's Perspective

Sean Delap, teacher, Coláiste Íosagain, & author

11.00 Coffee

11.15 Practical Approaches to Teaching Leaving Cert History

Brianan McGrane, teacher, St. Andrew's College

12.00 A Look Ahead: Modern Ireland, North and South 1949-1993: Combining Northern Ireland (Topic 5) and Republic of Ireland (Topic 6) for Leaving Cert

Valerie Foley, St. Mary's School, Nenagh

12.45 – 1.00 NMI Education Officers

The Museum as a learning resource to schools; the self directed learning resources on offer to them; exhibitions of relevance to the History curriculum at Kildare Street and Collins Barracks.

1.00 Lunch, followed by Handling Sessions in the National Museum Learning Resource Room

2.00 Junior Cert Revision: focusing on Third Year Revision Techniques

Frances Moss, Maryfield College

3.00 Tours of Exhibitions

Participants can take a self directed tour of any of the exhibitions. You may want to take the 'What's in the Museum' pack and see how it can be used as a self directed learning resource. (The HIGH CROSSES exhibition is particularly interesting)

To register: Leave text message (Your Name and School) at 087 143 54 38
You will not be contacted once your application has been received unless seminar is over-subscribed